

Grave Robbery in Ohio.

The people of Logan County, are greatly excited over a case of grave-robbing. A few days ago the body of Theodore Jones was buried on the farm of Williams Calland, one mile from Spring Hills. On Thursday, while tending his sheep, Mr. Calland discovered that the grave had been disturbed, and the next morning a party of citizens, on examining the spot, found that a hole had been dug at the head of the grave, the coffin smashed in, a hook inserted in the jaw, and the body drawn from its resting-place. The clothes were then taken off and replaced in the grave, which was not filled up, after which the body was dragged over the rough ground a distance of half a mile to the road. All along the way pieces of flesh were found sticking to the corn-stubs and the fences, showing very plainly where the body had been dragged through the mud. Two vehicles had been hitched to the fence, from which place the tracks diverged, one going toward Spring Hills and the other toward Urbana. The neighbors are horrified. Mr. Amos Hunter has offered a reward of $500, and another gentleman one of $200. The carriage used for the purpose was hired at a West Liberty livery stable. One of the men who engaged it has been identified as a medical student from that place, who is attending the Columbus Medical College.

A Surprised Administrator.

An Indianapolis exchange says: Several years ago an employe of one of the railroad companies whose lines enter this city, died at his home at the other terminus of his road. Time passed on, and the settlement of his estate was about completed by the administrator (it was a very exhausting or herculean performance), when he was surprised to receive a note from the officers of an Indianapolis bank, asking if the deceased did not have a bank book in his possession at the time of his death. The administrator replied that he had not found one, and was then told to visit Indianapolis and he would learn something to his advantage. He did so, and calling at the bank was astounded by the information that his dead friend had about $18,000 on deposit there, of which his family had not the slightest knowledge, and on presentation of proper proof was delivered to the administrator for the benefit of the estate.

A Girl Wanted.

For several days the police all over the State have been on the lookout for a soiled dove known as Amy Burdette, who has fallen heir to a fortune in Albany, New York. Her real name is Anna Cole, and a few years ago she was bright, vivacious young girl in her teens, a resident of a small town just outside Albany, N. Y. She was betrayed and driven into the world and soon drifted over into this State. For a while she reformed, living at Lancaster and Wilkesbarre, but soon went back to her life of shame. She went to Pottsville and then disappeared, and is thought to be now in Philadelphia. Her grandfather, G. D. Mann of Albany, has died, leaving her a small fortune.

Big Grass.

Mr. Hugh Miller, of Rocktown, who has been living in Nebraska for some months past, and who returned home weeks ago, brought into our office to-day a bunch of the heads of grass grown in that State, which beat anything in the grass line that we have seen for many a day. The heads are a foot in length, and full of small ones branching out, all of them loaded with seeds. Mr. Miller says that cattle eat the coarse grass very greedily, preferring it to timothy or clover, and that before feeding, it is necessary to thrash it, as there is too much seed about it to feed without knocking considerable of it off.

A Strange Case.

The petrified child in the family of J. A. Kinsley, of New Philadelphia, continues to attract general attention, and is considered by all who have seen it to be the wonder of wonders. The hardness has gradually spread all over the entire body, some portions being so hard that not the slightest indentation can be made. The case is said to be without a parallel in history, and the singular disease has thus far baffled all medical skill. How the child can live in this solidified state is the greatest mystery. The parents are greatly grieved over its sad affliction and are doing everything in their power for its relief.

A Careful Father.

A Cumberland Co., papa put it thus to his daughter's beau: "Jim, if you want Lou you can have her; but I don't want you hanging around unless you mean business. If you intend to marry her, be quick about it, for I can't keep awake late at night much longer."

The sheriff of Wilson County, Kansas, "took in" a horse thief at forty yards range the other day. He thought to make his escape by knocking the sheriff down with a stone. The sheriff rose and shot him dead as he ran.

CATARRH. A new discovery in Wash-Boilers. The true principle of washing discovered. AT LAST! Eight million families in the United States, and each family uses a common Wash-Boiler, and will certainly adopt the improvement. It has a double reservoir; a double system of trap valves; double circulating columns, through which the water is forced, and is discharged on top of, and through the clothing, which, by the great weight of water thus lifted, is returned by the hydraulic pressure of attraction of gravitation to the double reservoirs before mentioned, to be immediately trapped back into the circulating columns. Thus it will be seen the motion of the water is continuous, stimulating perpetual motion. The water, boiling hot, is forced through the clothing by the repellant power of heat, at the rate of 7 gallons per minute. It is astonishing to see how speedily and perfectly it will wash clothing. Thirty minutes is ample time to wash twenty-four shirts.

CATARRH. BROCKVILLE. C. R. LITTLEFIELD & Co.—DEAR SIR:—I have been troubled with Catarrh in all its forms for the last 20 years, and have used all remedies recommended to cure, but received little or no benefit, until I tried the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy. I have only used one bottle and a half, and I am so much better that I can say it has cured me. My daughter-in-law has also been afflicted for the last four years. She is now using the remedy with the same result. I can truly say it is a wonderful medicine, as I know from experience that it will cure any case of Catarrh. I formerly lived at Napanee, Ont. Hoping that you will introduce the medicine through the Dominion thoroughly, so that my fellow sufferers may have an opportunity of getting cured of this disease. Yours respectfully, N. B.—I have always been subject to headache: since taking the Constitutional I have not been troubled in the least. It will cure headache in two or three hours. N. SNOBET, 9221.

The Best Remedy Known to Man! Dr. Clark Johnson having associated himself with Mr. Edwin Eastman, an escaped captive, long a slave to Wakametka, the medicine man of the Comanches, is now prepared to lend his aid in the introduction of the wonderful remedy of that tribe. The experience of Mr. Eastman being similar to that of Mrs. Clara Jones and son, of Washington Co., Iowa, an account of whose sufferings were thrillingly narrated in the New York Herald of Dec. 15th, 1878, the facts of which are so widely known, and so nearly parallel, that but little mention of Mr. Eastman's experiences will be given here. They are, however, published in a neat volume of 300 pages, entitled, "Seven and Nine Years Among the Comanches and Apaches," of which mention will be made hereafter. Suffice it to say, that for several years, Mr. Eastman, while a captive, was compelled to gather the roots, barks, herbs and berries of which Wakametka's medicine was made, and is still prepared to provide the same materials for the successful introduction of the medicine to the world; and assures the public that the remedy is the same now as when Wakametka compelled him to make it.
